

Audiobooks

Carry On

by Rainbow Rowell

Simon Snow's final year at the Watford School of Magicks is overshadowed by a painful breakup, an overprotective mentor, a roommate's disappearance, and a plethora of monsters.

Clap When You Land

by Elizabeth Acevedo

An evocative novel in verse follows the experiences of two grieving sisters who navigate the loss of their father and the impact of his death on their relationship.

Stamped: Racism, antiracism, and you

by Jason Reynolds

A history of racist and antiracist ideas in America, from their roots in Europe until today, adapted from the National Book Award winner Stamped from the Beginning.

On the Come Up

by Angie Thomas

An ambitious young rapper pouring her frustrations into a first song, only to find herself at the center of a viral controversy that forces her to become the menace that her public reputation has portrayed her to be.

We are Displaced: My journey and stories from refugee girls around the world

by Malala Yousafzai

An urgent reminder about the plight of the world's refugees that draws on Malala Yousafzai's own experiences and the stories of some of the remarkable refugee girls she has met through the course of her advocacy journey.
