

APPR 2003

WRITING PROJECT & COMPETITION

for writers of all abilities – ages 18 and up.

Get involved...get creative... get published... win prize money!

Novice and experienced writers of fiction, nonfiction and poetry were invited to submit their work to the All Pikes Peak Reads Journal competition. Writers chose one of the themes selected from Frankenstein by Mary Shelley for this project, and the top three entries in each genre were included in a publication along with commemorative photos and information about APPR 2003. Cash prizes were awarded and winners were recognized at the APPR MONSTER BALL on October 19th.

Congratulations to the following winners:

Fiction/Non-Fiction

1st Sandra Knauf

2nd Constance Gelvin

3rd Edward Adam Domurat

Honorable Mention Sarah K. White

Poetry

1st Catherine A. Orr

2nd Nicholas Brenner

3rd Anu Goyal

Teen Writing Contest

1st April Martz

2nd Michael Gonzalez

3rd Alexandria Adkins

Honorable Mention Amber Pfeifer