

Rainbow Booklist

Neither

by Airlie Anderson

When you're neither, where do you fit in? Travel to the Land of All, where everyone is welcome! (Ages 2 – 6)

Love Makes a Family

by Sophie Beer

Families come in all shapes and sizes, but the one thing they all have in common is love. This board book has simple text and colorful illustrations that invite conversation. (Baby – Age 3)

All Are Welcome

by Alexandra Penfold

This school welcomes all regardless of race, religion, or background. Kids are reassured that school is a place of kindness, inclusivity, and diversity. (Ages 3 – 8)

Adventures with My Daddies

by Gareth Peter

Reading books together opens our eyes and imaginations to new worlds and experiences. Join this family of adventurers as they journey through stories together and share their own story of becoming a family. (Ages 4 – 8)

Daddy and Dada

by Ryan Brockington

Rumi shares about her family of five and notices how all the families she knows are different from each other. Encourages math talk while celebrating differences. (Ages 2 – 8)

You Matter

by Christian Robinson

When children feel loved and supported, they can focus on the important work of learning about their world. This book is a thoughtful reminder that we all matter. (Ages 4 – 7)

Fred Gets Dressed

by Peter Brown

Fred might never get dressed! That is until he peeks into Mom and Dad's closet and then the whole family joins in the fun of getting Fred dressed. (Ages 3 – 6)

Not Quite Narwhal

by Jessie Sima

Kelp has always known he was different from the other narwhals, and one day a surprising discovery helps him learn something new about himself. (Ages 4 – 7)

Rainbow: A First Book of Pride

by Michael Genhart

Bright colors and happy families fill this book that celebrates LGBTQIA+ pride and tells the meaning behind each rainbow stripe on the flag. (Ages 2 – 5)

Pride Puppy!

by Robin Stevenson

Pride Puppy is on the loose! This colorful and lively alphabet story details a family's Pride parade adventures. Have fun finding the images on the pages that match each letter. (Ages 4 – 6)

Bathe the Cat

by Alice B. Ginty

Written for busy families everywhere, this book is filled with nonsensical rhymes and a frenzied day of housework that will have you laughing through every page! (Ages 3 – 5)

It's Okay to Be a Unicorn

by Jason Tharp

Cornelius J. Sparklesteed is known for his creative handmade hats, but he is hiding a secret under his own tall, pointy hat. Will he find the courage to reveal his unique self to his friends? (Ages 3 – 9)

Families, Families, Families!

by Suzanne Lang

Cute and silly animals accompany fun, rhyming text that demonstrates the shared love within families. (Grades K – 2)

Grandad's Camper

by Harry Woodgate

A heartwarming story about a girl and her grandad as they work together to create new memories after being inspired by the memory of a loved one. (Ages 4 – 8)

Plenty of Hugs

by Fran Manushkin

Two mommies and their toddler enjoy a day of adventure: riding bikes, a visit to the zoo, and you guessed it — plenty of hugs! Large, full-color illustrations accompany rhyming text. (Ages 1 – 5)