

Bianca Jennings, 5th grade, James Irwin Charter Elementary

“Skin” by Bianca Jennings

The air you breathe is not yours, you borrow every breath you take Your skin is a gift, the skin made your flesh, do not doubt your life is All you have; treat it with respect. Your scars and bruises are not you,
They just show how brave you have been and how brave you still are.