

Toddler Books

Small Nap, Little Dream

by Talia Aikens-Nuñez

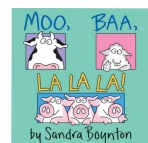

This playful story encourages little ones to get out their wiggles to help the transition from playtime to naptime, while learning simple Spanish vocabulary along the way. (J-Easy)

Listen Up! Train Song

by Victoria Allenby

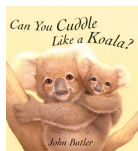

Repeating verses and bright photographs combine in a read-aloud that plays with the smaller sounds in language. (J-625.2 ALLE)

Moo, Baa, La La La!

by Sandra Boynton

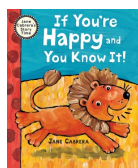

A share-together favorite that introduces readers to animals and the sounds they make. Silliness guaranteed! (J-Board)

Can You Cuddle Like a Koala?

by John Butler

This lovely book encourages your toddler to complete simple movements along with the baby animals, transitioning from energetic actions to quiet relaxation. (J-Board).

If You're Happy and You Know It!

by Jane Cabrera

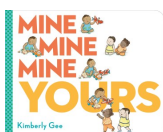

The familiar song gets an animal kingdom makeover! Readers will love calling out each critter featured in the bold illustrations and copying the corresponding actions. (J-Easy)

Splish, Splash, Ducky!

by Lucy Cousins

Readers will relish the bold illustrations as they splash and paddle along with Ducky and friends on a rainy day. (J-Easy)

Mine, Mine, Mine, Yours!

by Kimberly Gee

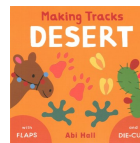

Three toddlers enjoy a lively playdate. Bright artwork and appealing text highlight the fun along with concepts like taking turns and apologizing. (J-Easy)

I Love All of Me

by Lorie Ann Grover

From toes to nose, this celebration of self is told with simple, rhyming text, bold art, and lots of opportunities for little ones to move. (J-Board)

Desert

by Abi Hall

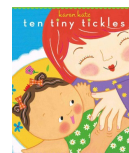

Who's making tracks? Lift the flaps to find out and develop observation and prediction skills, explore shapes, and learn about new animals and habitats. (J-Board/series)

After the Buzz Comes the Bee

by Rachel Isadora

Lift the flaps to find different animals making noises. See if your child can guess who made the sound before lifting the flap. (J-Easy)

Ten Tiny Ticks

by Karen Katz

Count the tickles 1 to 10, from head to toe! Introducing counting to young children can improve their math knowledge later. (J-Easy)

Hat Tricks

by Satoshi Kitamura

Hattie says the magic words, "Abracadabra, katakurico," and readers discover what's in the hat! Kids will love guessing! (J-Easy)

Chirp!

by Mary Murphy

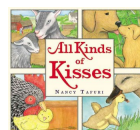

As each bird sings its own sunrise song, kids can chime in while enjoying the richly colored pages and cheerfully rhyming text. (J-Easy)

Five Fuzzy Chicks

by Diana Murray

After a busy day visiting their animal friends, five little chicks fall asleep one by one! Bedtime fun with animal sounds, counting, and adorable artwork. (J-Easy)

All Kinds of Kisses

by Nancy Tafuri

Mamas across the farm cuddle up with their little ones in this cozy, bedtime read-aloud that encourages toddlers to join in with the animal sounds. (J-Easy)

Animals Move

by Jane Whittingham

Learn about the names for 15 kinds of baby animals while having fun with rhyme, rhythm, and movement. (J-573.79 WHIT)

Do Sharks Bark?

by Salina Yoon

For each animal, readers lift a flap to reveal the sound it makes. Kids follow the story while strengthening the small hand muscles needed to draw and write! (J-Board)