Regency Romances
In During British Regency
(1811-1820)

Traditional Regencies focus on historical details and gentle romance. Historical Regencies include more social realism and characters who behave according to modern values. They are more explicit in nature and feature many love scenes.

Victoria Alexander
When We Meet Again* [P]

Jane Austen
Pride and Prejudice*

Ruth Axtell
A Heart’s Rebellion: A Regency Romance*

Mary Balogh
Dark Angel*/Lord Carew’s Bride* [P]
More than a Mistress* [P]
No Man’s Mistress*

Jo Beverley
The Dragon’s Bride*
The Fortune Hunter
The Stanforth Secrets*

Liz Carlyle
One Little Sin [P]
The Bride Wore Pearls* [P]

Loretta Chase
Mr. Impossible* [P]

Julie Daines
Willowkeep: A Regency Romance* [N]

Sarah M. Eden
As You Are: A Regency Romance
For Elise: A Regency Romance
Glimmer of Hope: A Regency Romance

Georgette Heyer
Cotillion*
The Grand Sophy*

Floria Hill
The Stanbroke Girls:
A Novel of Regency England

Eloisa James
The Duke Is Mine* [P]

Regina Jeffers
The Scandal of Lady Eleanor:
A Regency Novel

Sabrina Jeffries
The Art of Sinning* [P]
The Danger of Desire* [N]
If The Viscount Falls* [P]

Stephanie Laurens
The Perfect Lover*

Johanna Lindsey
A Loving Scoundrel* [P]

Jennifer Moore
Becoming Lady Lockwood:
A Regency Romance

Jude Morgan
Indiscretion

Sophia Nash
The Kiss* [P]

Catherine Palmer
Wild Heather

Amanda Quick
Don’t Look Back*
Late for the Wedding*

Julia Quinn
It’s In His Kiss* [P]

Visit ppld.org/reading-lists to find more reading lists you might enjoy!

Revised February 2017