

Christian Fiction For Teens

Blood Water Paint

by Joy McCullough

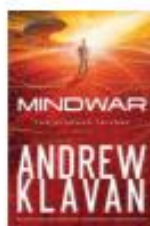

In Renaissance Italy, Artemisia Gentileschi endures the subjugation of women that allows her father to take credit for her extraordinary paintings, buoyed by her deceased mother's stories of strong women of the Bible.

Georgia Peaches and Other Forbidden Fruit

by Jaye Robin Brown

When Jo Gordon and her evangelist father move to small-town Rome, Georgia, she hides her sexuality to fit in with her new stepfamily until she falls for popular girl Mary Carlson, who proves to be the ultimate temptation.

Mind War

by Andrew Klavan

After becoming paralyzed, Rick Dial becomes an expert at video games and is recruited by a government agency to enter the Realm, a digital reality created by a Russian agent, to stop a cyber attack, but he soon suspects that something is very wrong.

The Orphan's Wish

by Melanie Dickerson

A reimagining of the story of Aladdin follows the experiences of an orphan in a faraway kingdom who becomes the childhood companion of a duke's daughter and who must leave a stable job in order to seek his fortune so that he can be worthy of her hand.

Code of Silence

by Tim Shoemaker

Witnessing a robbery that leaves a man in a coma, Cooper, Hiro and Gordy are tangled in a web of deceit that threatens their lives when they discover that the criminals may also be police officers, a finding that tempts them to stay silent about what they know.

The Evaporation of Sofi Snow

by Mary Weber

Seventeen-year-old Sofi battles behind the scenes of Earth's Fantasy Fighting arena helping her younger brother, Shilo, and when a bomb destroys part of the arena, she dreams Shilo survives on the forbidden ice-planet.
