

Homeschool Science @ East

2017-2018 Information

Our monthly Homeschool Science @ East program occurs the 3rd Friday of each month (mostly), September through May, at 1 p.m. in the East Library Community Meeting Room:

Sept. 15: Cassini Spacecraft: End of Mission presented by Chrys Rheinbolt from the Space Foundation Discovery Center

Oct. 20: Loco Motion: The Science and Circus Arts Show (Physics) presented by Peter Davison

Nov. 17: Physical Sciences presented by Colorado Springs Utilities

Your Nose Knows! Natural Gas Safety (Gr. 3-5)

Fire, Flood, and Water Supply (Gr 6-12)

Dec. 15: Chemistry Magic Show presented by Dr. Ron Furstenau from USAFA

Jan. 19: Ecology/Environmental Studies: Worms! presented by Catamount Institute

Feb. 16: Annual Science Fair (held at Library 21c)

Mar. 23: Fire Safety and Science (fourth Friday)

Colorado Springs Fire Department SafetyFactor Program

Visit from Station #14 fire engine and firefighters

Fire Lab (Gr 6-12)

Apr. 20: Newton's Laws of Motion: Preparation for Bottle Rocket Launch

May 18: Homeschool Bottle Rocket Launch

(Monthly topics are subject to change)

Homeschool Science @ East is a family program. Parents are expected to participate with their students where appropriate.

Looking for science lab equipment for your curriculum? Visit the ERC (Educational Resource Center) on the second floor of East Library for hands-on educational materials, lab equipment, and supplies.

Questions? Contact Joy Fleishhacker at jfleishhacker@ppld.org

