Inclusive Internship Initiative*

This opportunity provides two high schools juniors or seniors, or incoming college freshmen, from diverse populations with summer-long paid internships at Pikes Peak Library District. The interns will work at either Sand Creek or Penrose Library up to 35 hours a week developing a project with the help of a mentor. The interns will have the opportunity to engage with multiple facets of library life, from administrations to programming to user services. Interns will have opportunities to connect with one another, and learn from mentors across the country.

For full details and requirements please go to ppld.org/iii.

This program is offered through the Public Library Association with the support of the Institute of Museum and Library Sciences grant.
